

The Ketch - Line Cook

HOST INFORMATION

Company Description:

The Ketch Inn & Marina in Ketchikan, Alaska, offers students a dynamic workplace where the mountains meet the ocean.

Our seasonal activities include fishing, hiking, and biking, providing a vibrant atmosphere. Ketchikan's robust fishing culture permeates the community, offering a unique cultural experience. The workplace environment is friendly, emphasizing teamwork and excellent customer service. With mild temperatures ranging from 55°F to 65°F in summers and 30°F to 40°F in winters, Ketchikan's maritime climate ensures a moderate and comfortable atmosphere year-round.

Our $250 monthly fee covers housing, creating a supportive environment for staff. The 4th of July BBQ and shopping trips to Walmart contribute to a lively social scene.

As a bonus, our sister property, Salmon Falls, extends opportunities to explore more and connect with a broader network of hospitality professionals.

Join us at The Ketch Inn & Marina for a unique blend of work in the hospitality industry, cultural immersion in Ketchikan's fishing traditions, and outdoor adventures against the stunning backdrop of Alaskan landscapes.

ARRIVAL INFORMATION

Arrival Instructions:

All students must fly out of Seattle to get to Ketchikan. It is very important to note that Ketchikan does not have a social security office, so students must either travel to Seattle or Juneau prior to arriving in Ketchikan. If a student arrives in Ketchikan without going to social security first, the student will not be able to work.

Once you land in Ketchikan, take the ferry across to the other side ($6). Once you are across an Edgewater van will pick you up and take to Edgewater. Edgewater hotel is only a 5 min drive from the airport.

Suggested Arrival Airport:

Ketchikan, KTN, Less than 10 miles

Estimated cost of transportation to worksite from suggested airports: $0 to $25

If arriving after regular hours:

Suggested After-Hours Accommodation:
